

If You Love Horses...

Wasatch Humane needs you!

Announcing a new program to help unwanted and neglected horses in Utah!

FOSTER a horse or weanling or burro until it gets adopted (for a few weeks or months)

VOLUNTEER to feed, water, socialize and gentle rescued horses utilizing natural horsemanship gentling methods.

LOCATE and monitor horses in need in your neighborhood, who are unwanted or neglected and need our help to find new, loving homes

TELL your friends, horse club members, local breed clubs and 4-H clubs: we need their help to make Utah a better place... for the love of horses

DONATE money, tack, hay, veterinary services, grain, fence poles and panels, educational horse books and videos

TRANSPORT rescued horses to vet clinics and foster homes, transport hay

Wasatch Humane is Utah's oldest and largest animal rescue charity, each year saving, neutering and finding homes for more than 1,500 companion dogs, cats and horses. We do not euthanize healthy animals. Donations are tax-deductible as allowable by law.
